"It is not just about the credit card processor for us, it is about knowing the people behind the company. Everything is easy and efficient. Jon and his team are always available and all it takes is a quick call or text if anything is needed. Their care for clients is put ahead of everything which pays off for everyone in the long run. Alacrity Hub is a great partner that's easy to work with, efficient, and local!"

~Donald MacMurray, Port Tack LTD. Wine & Spirits

"If a retailer has an issue with accepting payments, there is absolutely nothing more important than getting it fixed quickly. And, simply put, Alacrity's customer service is phenomenal. And it has been since day 1. You get an actual human on the phone, and, not only that, but they are capable and effective with resolution"
